

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a grossly unfair use of the public airwaves.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. The FCC needs to step in and stop this abuse, or at a minimum require in fairness an airing of an unbiased account of John Kerry's Vietnam War heroism and his anti-war leadership.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
